"Did she? I expect she told you merely what was the truth. I went to see her because she had assured me that she could stop your marriage with Tormarin—could interfere in some way to prevent it. That was why I went to France. . . . But when she told me her blackguardly scheme—how she had planned and plotted to conceal the fact that Tormarin's wife was alive—and why she had done it, I would have no hand in anything that followed. I'm not saint"—a brief, ironical smile flitted across his face—"but there are some methods at which even I draw the line."

"So—that was why you stayed away?"

"That was why. I wanted you, Jean—God only knows how I wanted you!—but I couldn't try to force your hand at such a time. I couldn't profit by a damnable scheme like that."

Jean's eyes glowed soft as she realized that beneath all the impetuous arrogance and dominant demands of the man's temperament there yet lay something fine and clean and straight—difficult to get at, perhaps, but which could yet rise, in answer to a sense of honor and fairness with which she had not credited him, and take command of his whole nature.

"I'm glad—glad you didn't come, Geoffrey," she said gently. "Glad you couldn't."

"I don't know that I'm glad about it," he returned with a grin and candor. "I simply couldn't do it, and that's all there is to it. But I've come now, Jean. I've come because I want you to give me just the right look after you. I'm not asking for anything. I

Jean leaned lightly against the ancient wall which bounded the stone-paved court at Blenheim and looked down the valley below.

Spring was in the air—late come to this eastern corner of Europe—but, at last, even here the fragrance of fresh growing things was permeating the atmosphere, strips of vivid blue and the grey skies, and splashes of golden sunshine lay dappled over the shining roof of the valley that nestled in the valley.

But no responsive light lay itself in Jean's wistful eyes. She was out of tune with the season, spring and hope go hand in hand, the one symbolical of the other, and the promise of spring-time, the blossom of hope, was dead within her heart—withdrawn almost before it had had time to bud.

For COLDS

Dr. Williams' BABY'S OWN TABLETS

W. N. U. 1905

The months she had quitted England had sufficed to blunt the keen edge of her pain, but always she was conscious of a dull, unending ache—a corroding sense of the uselessness and emptiness of life.

Yet she had learned to be thankful for even this much respite from the piercing agony of the first few weeks which she had spent at Blenheim. Whatever the coming years might bring her of relief from pain, or even of some modicum of joy, those weeks when she had suffered the torments of the damned would remain stamped indelibly upon her memory.

During the last days at Charnwood she had been keyed up to a high pitch of endurance by the very magnitude of the renunciation she had made. It seems as though, when the soul strains upwards to the accomplishment of some deed that is almost beyond the power of weak human nature to achieve, there is vouchsafed, for the time being, a merciful oblivion to the immensity of pain involved. A transport of spiritual fervour lifts the martyr beyond any ordinary recognition of the physical fire that burns and chars his flesh, and some such ecstasy of sacrifice had supported Jean through the act of abnegation by which she had surrendered her love, and with it her life's happiness, at the foot of the stern altar of Duty.

Afterwards had followed the preparations and bustle of departure, the necessary arrangements to be made and telegraphed to Blenheim, and finally the long journey across Europe and the hundred and one small details that required settlement before she and Claire were fully installed at Blenheim and the wheels of the household machinery running smoothly.

But when all this was accomplished, when the need to arrange and plan and make decisions had gone by and her mind was free to concern itself again with her own affairs, then Jean realized the full price of her renunciation.

And she paid it. In days that were an endless procession of anguished hours; in sleepless nights that were a mental and physical torment of unbearable longing such as she had never dreamed of; in tears and in dumb, hopeless slumbers, she paid it. And at last, out of those racked and tortured weeks she emerged into a numb, listless capacity to pick up once more the torn and mutilated threads of life.

Looking backward, she marvelled at the wonderful patience with which Claire had borne with her, at the selfless way in which she had devoted all her energies to ministering to one who was suffering from heart-sickness—that most bewildering of all complaints to the sufferer's friends because so difficult of comprehension by those not similarly afflicted.

Nick's "pale gold narcissus" to Jean, who had clung to her, helped inexpressibly by her tranquil, steadfast, unswerving faith and loving-kindness. It seemed as though the staunch and sturdy oak were a more appropriate metaphor in which to express the soul of Claire.

She heard her now, coming with slight steps across the court. She rarely left Jean brooding long alone these days, exercising all her tact and ingenuity to devise some means by which she might distract her thoughts.

She held out her hands to him. "Geoffrey, I'm so sorry—but I'm afraid it doesn't. I wish—I wish I could give you any other answer. But, you see, it isn't marrying—it's love that matters. And all my love is given."

He took her hands in his and held them gently with that strange, new restraint he seemed to have learned. "I see," he said slowly. Then for a moment his smile wavered. The underlying passion, so strongly held by him, shook the even tones of his voice. "Tormarin is a lucky man—in spite of everything I'd give my soul to have what he has—my love, Jean."

His big hands closed round her slight ones and he lifted them to his lips. Then, without another word, he went away, and Jean was left wondering sorrowfully why the love that she did not want offered her in such full measure, hers to take at will, while the love for which she craved, the love which would have meant the quiet and fulfillment of life itself, was denied her—sent away by all the laws of God and Man.

Human Skeleton Discovered In Gravel Pit In Ohio

An old legend that two men lost their lives in 1840 while walking through an unexplored forest in near Knoxville, Ohio, has been revived with the finding of a human skeleton in a gravel pit near that town.

According to the story, the men starved to death and their bodies, found months afterwards, were buried near the spot where the bones were found.

Cost Of Ten Trips Reduced To Approximately $5.00 Per Mile

In completing ten trips across the Atlantic from Germany to Brazil this season, the Graf Zeppelin has made a record that antedates even her backers. Instead of costing almost $50,000 a crossing, as had been expected, the expenses of the journey have been reduced to $18,100, it is said, or approximately $3 a mile. The present charge for passage is $475, only a third more than steamer fare, while the time of transit is reduced from 12 days to three.

To recognize with delight all high and generous and beautiful actions; to find joy even in seeing the good qualities of your bitterest opponent, and to admire those qualities even in those with whom you have least sympathy, this is the only spirit which can lead the love of sinners and of calumny.—F. ## TROOPS QUELL SECOND RIOT AT PORTSMOUTH

Kington, Ont.—More than 200 maddened convicts, deaf in the face of machine guns and rifle fire, rioted in open mutiny in Portsmouth penitentiary.

Seven hundred men howled their approval from the iron-barred cell block of Canada's largest penal institution.

One prisoner fell wounded before the rifle fire of troops summoned for the second time in four days from Kingston barracks by distressed prison officials. Prison authorities, who reported no further injuries, said the man was not seriously hurt.

The climax of three days of unrest since the initial outbreak came when 110 prisoners in an "overflow" dormitory overpowered their 40 guards and released another 110 convicts from tiers of cells in the "big house."

Windsor, Ont.—Collapse of a rumor that sentences of all inmates were to be reduced one-third was one of the chief causes of the riot at Portsmouth penitentiary, according to "Red," a former convict released last month.

The former convict also said there was little doubt "rotten food" and lack of cigarette papers also contributed to the recent outbreak.

Locomotive Blast

Boiler Explodes, Bringing Death To Engineer and Injuring Fireman

Dryden, Ont.—A small Harry engine, in dead, and Tom O'Flaherty, fireman, and the brakeman, are injured as the result of a boiler explosion in the engine of a mixed passenger and freight train a mile and a half east of here.

Meagre reports of the accident are reaching here over crippled communication channels. All wire connections between eastern and western Canada was cut off at the point of the explosion between Kenora and Fort Frances, Dr. Morrison, of Dryden, and Miss Watson, of the Red Cross hospital here, left hurriedly for the scene of the tragedy.

The train was eastbound on the Canadian Pacific Railway when the explosion occurred. Both Harris and O'Flaherty are residents of Kenora, Ontario.

Cost Of Canadian Navy

Sum Expended During Last Fiscal Year Was $20,459,569

Ottawa, Ont.—The total expenditure on the Royal Canadian Navy for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1932, amounted to $20,459,569. Of that sum the amount needed to clear construction costs of the two new warships, "Ragueny" and "Skeena," was $500,000. The navy is currently in the process of securing the status of a Canadian-manufactured vessel. Of the eight commissions now serving in the R.C.N., seven are Canadians.

Up to the end of the fiscal year these ships ran up a bill of $22,511.68 for fuel oil, a minimum cost in view of the fact that the destroyers, "Ragueny" and "Skeena," were not commissioned until May and June of last year.

By-Election Is Closed

Liberal Candidate Noses Out By Majority Of One Vote

Summerside, P.E.I.—Given a majority of one vote in the by-election, Dr. J. P. MacNeill, Liberal, was declared elected to represent the fifth district of Prince in the Prince Edward Island legislative assembly. His total vote, officially announced by the returning officer, was 1,387. H. M. Downing, his Conservative opponent, received 1,386. It is understood that Mr. Downing will file application for a recount.

Labor Battalion Formed

B.C. Plans To Carry Out Road Work During Winter

Victoria, B.C.—British Columbia's first labor battalion sprang into being when provision for the representation of young men in camp, members of non-permanent active militia, was made so that these men may be placed in a single camp in the university endowment lands area, Port Grey, Vancouver, under military discipline, with the object of carrying out road work in that area during winter months.

Request Passes For Workless

Alberta Asks Help From Ottawa For Stranded Men

Edmonton, Alberta.—Efforts to move single unemployed men, residents of Vancouver and other British Columbia cities, who have been stranded in Edmonton and Calgary and other prairie points as a result of the ban on freight train riding, are now under way.

Senator J. B. Brownlie stated no intimation had been received as to what Ottawa was prepared to do.

It is understood R.C.M.P. officials have suggested each man be required to make an affidavit as to his proper place of residence and then the required number of railway passenger cars, of the colonist type, be requisitioned by the federal government to take the men to their homes.

Under this plan each man would receive a pass to travel on these cars.

Vancouver, B.C.—Mayor L. D. Taylor has moved swiftly in the effort to block Edmonton's agitation at Ottawa for the removal of the straggling ban. Fearing a flood of unemployed from the prairies on Vancouver and other cities, he is now wiring Prime Minister Bennett, urging the ban remain.

For Disarmament

Memorial To Premier MacDonald Urging Action On U.S. Proposals

London, England.—Three hundred well-known Britons signed a national memorial to Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald urging acceptance of the principle of the United States proposal to cut armaments by nearly one-third.

The memorial said the government should "as a practical step towards establishment of a status of equality with the United States" accept the principle of the proposals of President Herbert Hoover.

Among the signers were Lord Cecil, the Archbishop of York, Dean Inge, Sir Oliver Lodge, Sir Norman Angell, Major Hayden, John Drinkwater, John Galsworthy, and H. G. Wells.

Voyage Was Uneventful

Miss Cora Hind Arrives In England From Churchill

Avalonmouth, England.—Miss Cora Hind, Winnipeg newspaperwoman, arrived at this Gloucestershire port aboard the Italian motorship "Juventus," 13 days and 21 hours after leaving Churchill, Man. She was the first woman to sail from Canada's northernmost port.

What impressed her most was the fact the pilot was dropped only two miles out of Churchill after which the ship steamed steadily between nine and 10 knots, meeting fog only on the open sea.

During the entire 3,078 miles, she said, the ship had sighted only four icebergs early in the trip and all at a considerable distance.

Japanese Bandits May Release Captives

Have Come To Agreement About British Subjects Is Reported

Shanghai, China.—Japanese intermediaries at Mukden were reported to have reached an agreement to effect the release of Mr. Kenneth Pawley and Charles Corkran, British subjects, who were captured several weeks ago by bandits.

The agreement provides for payment of 150,000 yen (about $32,500), 250 pounds of opium and a supply of winter clothing for the bandits.

World Economic Conference

Date For Meeting at London To Be Decided Soon

Ottawa, Ont.—The date for the convening of the World Economic Conference in London, England, will be decided upon some time in November, it was stated on highest authority. Fixing of the date, which may be in December or January, will be a matter of agreement between the government of the United Kingdom, which extended the invitations, and foreign and other powers who will be represented at the party.

Beef Exports From Alberta

Calgary, Alberta.—More than 100,000 pounds of beef was exported from Alberta in 1931, according to R. G. Carlyle, Alberta Livestock Commissioner. There were also exported 100,000 head of cattle, of which 8,000 went overseas. He stated 1931 would go down in history as having the lowest livestock price levels in 30 years.

The Thames Riot

Matter To Come Up For Debate In House Of Commons

London, England.—Twenty hours after 10,000 jobless men and women had rioted across the Thames from Parliament Square, Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald promised to permit debate soon in the House of Commons on unemployment.

A questioning member of parliament previously had brought up the riot as a subject of discussion, and Sir John Gilmour, the Home Secretary, reported the demonstration was organized by a Communist organization.

Fifty men and four women who were rounded up during the rioting and looting that followed, were taken into ancient Lambeth police court and held under heavy guard. Outside crowds of unemployed began to assemble but police lines held them in lower Kennington Lane.

The prisoners were sentenced to pay fines of 40 shillings each (about seven dollars) or serve jail terms of 14 days to one month.

After Long Sleep

Gut Said To Be Recovering From Sleeping Sickness Lasting Many Months

Chicago.—Like following Irving's Rip Van Winkle, Miss Patricia McGuire, 27, who has been ill with sleeping sickness since last February 24, is going to have a lot of news to catch up on when she awakens from her long slumber.

Physicians who have attended her in her suburban home in Oak Park say there are unmistakable signs that she is awakening and her friends are wondering what her reactions will be to the many things that have happened since she fell asleep.

MAY CONSIDER FIVE CENT BONUS FOR 1932 CROP

Ottawa, Ont.—The Federal Government is considering paying a bonus of five cents a bushel to western Canada's farmers of the 1932 wheat crop. This was definitely stated in the House of Commons by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, when questioned on the subject by John Vallance, Liberal, (South Battleford). No indication was given when a decision could be expected.

A bonus of five cents a bushel was paid to western wheat growers last year by the government, and was paid through the board of grain commissioners.

The question and answer between Prime Minister Bennett and Mr. Vallance were short.

Mr. Vallance said he had received three telegrams from points in the west, each urging him to press for the bonus of five cents a bushel on wheat. One telegram, he said, stated the bonus were not granted, "revolution was inevitable."

"The government has the matter under consideration," the Prime Minister replied.

SUCCEEDS CHARLESWORTH

Press Silent So Far On Annulment Of Trade Agreement

Moscow, Russia.—A despatch from London, England, reporting the annulment of the British trade agreement with Russia was published in Moscow newspaper without comment, apparently having been received too late for editorial expression.

During the Ottawa conference Soviet newspapers threatened reprisals if Great Britain sought to place restrictions on its purchases from Russia in accord with reported Canadian demands.

London, England.—There was a general recognition in the London press that the denunciation of the Anglo-Russian trade treaty was the logical sequence of the Imperial Conference at Ottawa.

Kingston Prison Riot

Claimed Convict Helped To Quell Disturbance

Ottawa, Ont.—The Ottawa Citizen carried the following despatch from Kingston following the penitentiary riot:

It is stated a threat was made to set a fire before "Red" Ryan, at one time a dangerous bandit, took action, and then he addressed an angry mob of convicts and appealed to them not to start the blaze or do any damage. "For God's sake, men, do not do this—it will not get you anywhere. I tried it one time and it didn't get me any place," he is reported as saying.

It is stated that "Red" Ryan's appeal helped to quiet down the convicts.

1,200 Men Given Work

Detroit.—David Widman, secretary and treasurer of the Murray Corporation of America, manufacturers of automobile bodies, announced that the company this week is rehiring 1,200 employees, mostly tool makers, and increasing its payroll about $50,000 in wage preparation for the production of 1933 models by automobile factories.

Jobless Create Problem

Providing Government Officials With Plenty Of Worry

Calgary, Alberta.—Single jobless in western Canada are in a quandary and providing government officials with a knotty problem.

Efforts to have the Dominion government provide them with transportation back to their homes brought about a meeting of Mayor Louis D. Taylor, of Vancouver, that he feared they would all stay Vancouver was their home and seek transportation for the coast city if such transportation were granted.

With 1,000 men in Edmonton without work and another 1,200 here, efforts were being made to find some means of aiding them during the winter months or paving the way for their return to their homes, checked when the ban on road-riding went into effect at the end of September.

Civic officials here said no relief was being granted able-bodied single men. Whether any would be granted later was not ventured, pending announcement of federal relief plans for the coming winter.

Criticizes British Attitude

De Valera Says British Playing Part Of Shylock

Dublin, Irish Free State.—Great Britain is "playing the part of Shylock" toward the Free State and at the same time petitioning the United States for relief from war debts "which no ones denies are morally and legally due," President Kaman declared before the daily cream town.

The president was making his remarks to the legislature on the failure of the negotiations in London which had been aimed at terminating the Anglo-Irish tariff war. He said those negotiations had failed because British insisted members of a supposed arbitration committee should be limited to representatives of empires nations. This insistence, he added, had put any possibility of arbitration.

Mr. De Valera declared the Free State was either legally or morally obligated to pay land annuities to Britain.

Lumbermen Pleaded

Abrogation Of Anglo-Soviet Commercial Treaty Good News To B.C. Lumber Interests

Victoria, B.C.—Abrogation of the Anglo-Soviet commercial treaty announced in London, England, is good news to the British Columbia lumber industry, which has been forced to compete with Russian dumped lumber in Great Britain.

"This is the most encouraging news that has been received for some time," said Hon. R. M. Loughheed, Minister of Lands, in commenting on the abrogation of the treaty.

The Soviet trade agreement with Great Britain would be terminated.

OTTAWA PACT IS APPROVED BY BRITISH HOUSE

London, England.—A majority of 222 was secured by the government in the House of Commons on the vote relative to the Ottawa agreements. The vote was not on the agreements themselves but on a resolution of procedure in connection with legislation implementing the agreements.

It was taken, nevertheless, as a good indication of how the House is divided on the trade agreement and the tariffs necessary to carry them out.

To implement the agreements it will be necessary to impose 22 new United Kingdom duties on foreign goods. The normal procedure would be to pass a separate resolution for each duty. The government must before the House was to authorize the incorporation of the whole 22 duties into one resolution.

The government motion was carried 291 to 69, and the House resumed general debate on the main resolutions.

Major C. R. Allen, former Labor Minister, announced the Labor party did not intend to be bound by the Ottawa agreement. He added that he understood his party's views were shared by Sir Herbert Samuel, Hon. W. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader of the Canadian House of Commons, and H. Scullin, leader of the opposition in the Australian government.

EVIDENCE IS SUBMITTED IN BRIGHT FAN CASE

Ottawa, Ont.—Conflicting evidence was adduced at the "Bright Fan" inquiry before Mr. Justice Humphrey Meilish of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia. Captain R. E. Oliver, master of the British freighter which struck an iceberg and sank October 1 last, with 255,000 bushels of western grain loaded at Churchill, was the chief witness. Evidence was conflicting in regard to drinking among the officers and crew.

Captain Oliver, who was decorated for his war work in the patrol and transport services, passed through a long ordeal on the stand, weakening only when he begged to be excused from describing his war experiences.

Several witnesses said there was no liquor on the ship and none in the hold at Churchill. Captain Oliver said he had done no drinking since leaving England.

Steward Goe said he had two cases of whiskey when he left England, also considerable port and brandy. When he left Churchill there was two bottles of brandy and two of port. When they went down there was one bottle of brandy and two of port.

Discontinue Dumping Duty On Gasoline

Claim Duty Has Been Holding Up Price In Various Parts Of Canada

Ottawa, Ont.—An important step was taken by the government in ordering discontinuance of the dumping duty against gasoline imported from the United States. For some time complaints have been made that the dumping duties were holding up the price of gasoline in many parts of Canada. The regular duty of two and a half cents a gallon remained. The dumping duty varied as the competitive prices of gasoline in the wholesale centers of the United States, but one estimate held that it averaged about two cents a gallon.

Officials have declined to venture any forecast as to whether it would bring down the price of gasoline.

Attacks Trade Treaty

W. H. Moore Says Canada Is Forging Its Own Shackles by Accepting The United Kingdom Trade Treaty, Parliament Was Advised By William H. Moore, Liberal, South Ontario, former chairman of the tariff advisory board.

Canada's tariff, he said, would remain rigid for five years, irrespective of the changes in the labor or economic conditions. The secret of a successful tariff was its flexibility to meet changing trade conditions. "We were using both its hands blindly for five years," Mr. Moore held.

Age Of The Earth

Toronto Scientists Place Age At Three Thousand Million Years

Toronto, Ont.—Two Toronto scientists, by means of their experiments, claim to have confirmed the age of the earth at three thousand million years.

Professor E. F. Burton, chairman of the Physics department at the University of Toronto, and Professor J. C. McLennan claim that experiments with liquefied helium in glass vacuum bottles confirm deductions from analyses of radio-active rocks.

Compromise With Crime

Winnipeg, Man.—A far too lenient attitude is being taken toward crime, and the present generation does not regard wrong-doing as a thing to be ashamed of, as did their fathers, Magistrate R. H. Graham remarked in police court here, when he reluctantly allowed three young men the free term on suspended sentences of two years each.

Death Of Rhy's Thomas

A French Agricultural View on Russia

M. Victor Boret, a former French Minister of Agriculture, has just visited Russia and reports that the general economic position is difficult, and in every town people feel the pinch of insufficient food supplies. The population is increasing three millions a year and will be about 300 millions in ten years from now. Such increase of consumers makes it unlikely that Russia will ever be a big exporter except in years of exceptionally good crops, and may eventually find all food grain wanted at home, as India; or there may be even famine conditions in poor crop years, as is the case now in China. In the meantime saving for the 1928 harvest continues to go slowly, the latest figures showing a reduction of nearly 10,000,000 acres, compared with the sowings on the corresponding date last year. And further, it has just been announced that the sowing plans for next spring have been revised and there will be a cessation of all efforts to increase the land under cultivation, the revision being due to the fact that available tractive power and labor cannot cope with larger areas without risking a reduction of harvest yield—the sowings of cereals next spring will be maintained or increased but less land will be put under beetroot, linseed and cotton.
